

SIXTH GRADE SUMMER READING 2020

Complete the following two assignments prior to the first day of school.

1. Each student will read Prince Caspian, by C.S. Lewis. The class will be discussing this book in preparation for the study of sixth grade literature's varying themes and emphases.

Please compose a paragraph, to be handed in the first day of class, with the following information:

- Title
- Author
- A summary of the plot
- A description of three main characters in the book
- Three sentences telling whether or not the student would recommend the book to other readers, and why or why not

The paper may be typed or neatly handwritten using black or blue ink only.

The following criteria will be used to grade this assignment:

- a. The student's name appears in the top left corner of the paper. (2 points)
- b. The paper summarizes the plot. (10 points)
- c. The paper contains a description of three main characters. (9 points)
- d. The paper contains three sentences telling whether or not the student would recommend the book, and why or why not. (6 points)
- e. The paper is typed or neatly handwritten using black or blue ink, and includes the pledge of integrity. (5 points)

2. Each student will also complete the online keyboarding course at www.goodtyping.com. The program allows students to track their progress and print out results – we are asking that students turn in these results on the first day of school.

Students should affirm the integrity of their work by writing the following pledge on each assignment and signing it:

I have read this whole book, and all written work is my own.
