CitiusTech launches PERFORM+, a comprehensive solution for provider performance management

The end-to-end solution provides an integrated approach to orchestrate multiple care quality and value-based programs, empowering health plans and provider groups to innovate and enhance provider performance

Princeton, NJ; September 8, 2021 – CitiusTech, a leading provider of healthcare technology solutions, services and platforms, announced today the launch of PERFORM+, a configurable, end-to-end solution that empowers health plans and provider groups to monitor and enhance provider performance, by providing complete oversight across all key processes and measures. The solution was jointly designed and developed by CitiusTech and FluidEdge, CitiusTech’s healthcare consulting arm.

“With PERFORM+, health plans and provider groups can now build a unified strategy for coordinated, efficient management of providers, across value-based contracts, population health and regulatory programs,” said Jeffrey Springer, Senior Vice President, Healthcare Solutions at CitiusTech. “PERFORM+ allows organizations to take a holistic approach to improving care quality, by better aligning initiatives and programs with their strategic, value-based objectives.”

PERFORM+ works by unifying information from diverse systems for data driven decision making, helping quality teams implement multiple initiatives, streamline provider engagement and enhance care outcomes. It includes an extensible library of 700+ pre-measures across financial, operational, cost, care quality and value-based programs. It also offers powerful self-service capabilities and an AI-driven recommendation engine.

“As value-based models continue to gain momentum, there is a real need to strengthen the trust-based relationships between health plans, providers and members,” said Eric Schultz, Executive Practice Leader at FluidEdge Consulting. “PERFORM+ allows healthcare organizations to amplify value by optimizing performance, building transparent relationships and lowering abrasion, all of which are pertinent for both payers and providers to realize their business goals.”
